FROM THE CHAIRMAN'S DESK

At the outset, I would like to thank you for believing in us. This is a great moment of pride and honor for me to share the significant contribution to the society made by us through Shri S S Jambagi Memorial Education and Charitable Trust. I am a Physician practicing General Medicine along with my wife, Dr. Varsha Jambagi, who is a Gynecologist, for the past 28 years. The Trust was established in 2003 with the noble vision of contributing to the society through high quality educational and medical facilities.

Since then the Trust has made remarkable progress by setting up reputed institutions like Shri Siddhivinayak Rural Ayurvedic Medical College, Hospital and Research Center, Harugeri and Shri Siddhivinayak Rural College of Education, Harugeri.

With the experience of running such institutes of repute, we were motivated to start a Residential PU College in Belagavi, the Education Hub of North Karnataka, to enable students to get the finest education with academic and residential facilities, all under one roof. The academic schedule of the college is designed to train the students for Board exams as well as Competitive exams like JEE (Mains and Advanced), NEET and other medical entrance exams, KCET and COMED – K, etc. The teaching methodology is student – centric where the students are guided according to their strengths to become better performers. The teaching faculty is a blend of youth and experience, dedicated to achieve excellence incorporating latest innovation and technology for a holistic approach. We focus on maintaining a perfect balance between traditional methods of teaching and modern technology, by constantly updating ourselves with the advancements in the field of teaching and stressing on dedicated, disciplined and goal-oriented self study among the students.

I welcome you to be a part of this Great Endeavor of fulfilling the wishes and dreams of you and your children with your cooperation and good wishes.
